Reservations Cost: 5,000 yen

A special performance by the taiko performing arts troupe "KODO" featuring talk and taiko experiences. A special stage featuring Furano's local performing arts.

Local Folk Arts Each performance time: approx. 25 min

The Hokkaido Furano High School has twice won second place in the national calligraphy competition, and has been selected many times for the all-prefectural competition. They have even done a calligraphy performance at the Asahiyama Zoo. A dynamic and interesting experience to see calligraphy drawn with huge brushes and a great deal of physical effort.

Japanese Musical Instrument Performance Sat Yamanaka Japanese Music Club

This long-established group in Furano City studies and performs traditional Jap-anese music, mainly on the koto and shakuhachi. They captivate audiences with the melodies and tones unique to traditional Japanese instruments. Hear centuries old music and put yourself back into ancient Japan.

Sun

Shorinji Kempo Demonstration

Furano Komyoji Temple

Established in 2010, this dojo is led by Aoki Kenryu, head priest of Seizan Jodo Sect Komyoji Temple. He also serves as the coach of the Furano High School Shorinji Kempo Club, and every year produces winners at the National Championships, World Champi-onships, Inter-High School Championships, National Junior High School Competition.

Special Guest

(performing on all dates) performance time: approx. 60 min

Taiko Performing Arts Group

Based in Sado, Niigata Prefecture, this famed group has performed over 7,000 times in more than 50 countries. They also collaborate with artists from a variety of genres, international art festivals, film music, etc. In 2023, they received the Agency for Cultural Affairs Director's Award. A rare chance to see arguably the best drumming group in Japan.
